Foreword

Children are our most valuable resource. The investment we make in them today will benefit all of California tomorrow. Early intervention services make a difference in the lives of infants and toddlers at risk of or with developmental delays or disabilities and their families.

Based on the needs of the child and family, early intervention services maximize the developmental potential of infants and toddlers with disabilities within the context of their daily routines and activities, increasing their potential to live independently and exercise their full rights as citizens. The earlier intervention is started, the more likely it is that the educational achievement and quality of life for children with disabilities will be higher.

The federal Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, Part C, and the California Early Intervention Services Act ensure that infants and toddlers with disabilities and their families receive coordinated services early enough to make a difference. Meeting the complex needs of infants with disabilities and their families involves the services and supports of multiple state and local agencies. To ensure maximum effectiveness, these services are coordinated, flexible, culturally responsive, accessible and, most importantly, responsive to the needs of the child and family.

In California, Early Start's system of early intervention services are intended to support and enhance the capability of every family with an infant or toddler with a disability to meet the special developmental needs of their child. Infants and toddlers with disabilities are an integral part of our communities and make a valuable contribution to society as a whole. Through Early Start, California is committed to support these children and families.

Purpose of the Central Directory

The Early Start Central Directory ensures that:

- parents, family members, service providers, and members of the public, including those with disabilities, can get information on the early intervention resources available throughout the State in a timely and organized manner, and
- information regarding the nature and scope of these resources is available through telephone or written requests at state and local levels.

The Department of Developmental Services (DDS) annually updates and disseminates the Early Start Central Directory as a publication and also maintains the information on the DDS web site located at www.dds.ca.gov/earlystart/ESResMaterials.cfm. A toll-free information and referral telephone line, known as the Early Start BabyLine, is also maintained by DDS.

DDS collaborated with the State Departments of Education, Health Services, Mental Health, Social Services, and Alcohol and Drug Programs to identify the services and supports available through their respective agencies. Each agency maintains additional detailed information on the specific services that each provides statewide.

In local communities, family resource centers/networks, regional centers, and local education agencies maintain specific information about the private and public services available within their area. These local resources may include parent support groups; health care providers with knowledge about early intervention and disabilities; special education, early intervention and preschool programs; regional center contacts and vendored services; advocacy organizations; and other related resources for infants and toddlers with special needs and their families.

If you cannot find the information you need about Early Start, call the Early Start BabyLine at 800/515-BABY, visit our web site at www.dds.ca.gov/earlystart, or e-mail us at earlystart@dds.ca.gov.

Overview of California Early Start

WHAT IS EARLY START?

Early Start is California's system of early intervention services provided to infants and toddlers with disabilities and their families. It is a multiagency effort by the Department of Developmental Services and the California Department of Education that encourages partnerships between families and professionals, family support, and coordination of services. The statewide system of early intervention services is available throughout California and can be accessed through regional centers for developmental disabilities, county offices of education, local school districts, health or social service agencies, and family resource centers/networks in your community.

An important part of Early Start is the network of family resource centers (FRCs) that provide parent-to-parent contact, information about disabilities and early intervention, and assistance in accessing services. Phone contact, home or hospital visits, and support groups are all ways in which families might connect with experienced, knowledgeable parent "peers" through their local FRC.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE?

Infants and toddlers from birth to 36 months of age may be eligible for early intervention services if, through documented evaluation and assessment, they meet one of the criteria listed below:

1. have a developmental delay in either cognitive, communication, social or emotional, adaptive, or physical and motor development including vision and hearing; or
2. have established risk conditions of known etiology with a high probability of resulting in delayed development; or
3. are at high risk of having a substantial developmental disability due to a combination of risk factors.

WHAT ARE EARLY INTERVENTION SERVICES?

Early intervention services are provided based on the developmental needs of the child, the concerns and priorities of the family, and the resources available to them. Services are provided within the context of the child and family's daily activities and routines. Eligible children and families may receive a variety of early intervention services; some children may need only one or two early intervention services. Early intervention services may include:

- assistive technology, including devices or services
- audiology or hearing services
- family training, counseling, and home visits
- health services necessary for a child to benefit from other early intervention services
- medical services for diagnosis and evaluation only
- nursing services
- nutrition services
- occupational therapy
- physical therapy
- psychological services
- respite services
- service coordination (case management)
- social work services
- special instruction
- speech and language services
- transportation and related costs necessary for a child to receive services
- vision services

WHO PROVIDES SERVICES AND SUPPORTS?

Early intervention services are individually determined for each eligible infant or toddler and are provided, purchased, or arranged by a regional center or local education agency. Local education agencies are primarily responsible for services for infants with vision, hearing, and severe orthopedic impairments, including any combination of these solely low incidence disabilities. Regional centers are responsible for services for all other children eligible for Early Start. Early Start family resource centers provide parent-to-parent support, information, and referral for all families.

HOW MUCH DOES IT COST?

Early Start services are provided at no cost to families. Early Start is funded by federal and state funds. Other publicly-funded services may also be used. Private insurance is another resource that may be used to fund an early intervention service if the family will not incur a financial cost or loss of coverage of benefits. Use of private insurance is voluntary and requires the family's informed consent.

ARE OTHER SERVICES AVAILABLE?

Yes. The Departments of Health Services, Mental Health, Social Services, and Alcohol and Drug Programs are State agencies that provide services and resources that may be beneficial. Descriptions of the services that these agencies provide are contained in this directory. Each agency determines eligibility for the services that it provides.

HOW DO I ACCESS MORE INFORMATION?

Call the regional center in your local area or 800/515-BABY, visit www.dds.ca.gov/earlystart, or e-mail us at earlystart@dds.ca.gov for resource information or referral to local Early Start services and family resource centers. Call 800/869-4337 for product information and free multilingual resources on early intervention or visit www.WestEd.org/cpei.

Referral to California Early Start

The first five years are critical in a child's life. The sooner a concern is identified, the sooner a child and family can be referred to the appropriate agency to determine eligibility for specialized services to support growth and development.

Regional centers are the point of entry into the system that serves all people with developmental disabilities, including infants and toddlers (see p. 10 for a complete description of regional center activities). Infants and toddlers who have vision, hearing, and severe orthopedic impairments (or a combination of these disabilities) receive individually designed early intervention services from local education agencies such as school districts and county offices of education (see p. 25 for a complete description of local education agency activities).

Once contact is made with a regional center or school district, a representative of these agencies will provide additional information about services and, if appropriate, make arrangements to have the child assessed to see if the child qualifies for special services. Parents must give written permission for the child to be assessed and to receive special education or early intervention services, which are confidential and provided at no cost to the family. The family can also receive information about local family resource centers (see listing beginning on p. 19) and Family Empowerment Centers, which provide parent-to-parent support, resource materials, and other information. Refer to p. 6 for a flow chart that illustrates the referral process.

The following information is designed to assist you in determining whether your child or a child in your care may need to be referred to a regional center or local education agency for an evaluation and assessment to determine if they are eligible to receive early intervention services.

RISK FACTORS

The following factors may place children at greater risk for health and developmental concerns:

- Prematurity or low birth weight
- Vision or hearing difficulties
- Prenatal exposure or other types of exposure to drugs, alcohol or tobacco
- Poor nutrition or difficulties eating (lacks nutritious foods, vitamins, proteins, or iron in diet)
- Exposure to lead-based paint (licking, eating or sucking on lead-base painted doors, floors, furniture, toys, etc.)
- Environmental factors, such as abuse or neglect

BEHAVIORS AND RELATIONSHIPS

Some of the following behaviors may be cause for concern in any child regardless of age.

- Avoids being held, does not like being touched
- Resists being calmed, cannot be comforted
- Avoids or rarely makes eye contact with others
- By age 4 months, does not coo or smile when interacting with others
- By age 1, does not play games such as peek-a-boo or pat-a-cake or wave bye-bye
- By age 2, does not imitate parent or caregiver doing everyday things, such as washing dishes, cooking, or brushing teeth

- Acts aggressively on a regular basis, hurts self or others

HEARING

- Has frequent earaches
- Has had many ear, nose, and/or throat infections
- Does not look where sounds or voices are coming from or react to loud noises
- Talks in a very loud or very low voice or voice has an unusual sound
- Does not always respond when called from across a room, even when it is for something that the child is usually interested in or likes
- Turns body so that the same ear is always turned toward a sound

SEEING

- Has reddened, watery eyes, or crusty eyelids
- Rubs eyes frequently
- Closes one eye or tilts head when looking at an object
- Has difficulty following objects or looking at people when talked to
- Has difficulty focusing or making eye contact
- Usually holds books or objects very close to face or sits with face very close to television
- Has an eye or eyes that look crossed or turned, or eyes do not move together

MOVING

- Has stiff arms or legs
- Pushes away or arches back when held close or cuddled
- By age 4 months, does not hold head up
- By age 6 months, does not roll over
- By age 1, does not sit up or creep using hands and knees, does not pick up small objects with finger and thumb
- By age 2, does not walk alone, has difficulty holding large crayons and scribbling
- By age 3, shows poor coordination and falls or stumbles a lot when running, has difficult turning pages in a book
- By age 4, has difficulty standing on one foot for a short time
- By age 5, does not skip or hop on one foot, has difficulty drawing simple shapes

COMMUNICATING

- By age 3 months, does not coo or smile
- By age 6 months, does not babble to get attention
- By age 1, does not respond differently to words like "night night" or "ball"
- By age 1, does not say words to name people or objects, such as "mama" or "bottle," or shake head "no"
- By age 2, does not point to or name objects or people to express wants or needs
- By age 2, does not use two-word phrases, such as "want juice" or "mama go"
- By age 3, does not try to say familiar rhymes or songs
- By age 3, cannot follow simple directions
- By age 4, does not tell stories, whether real or make-believe, or ask questions
- By age 4, does not talk so that adults outside of the family can understand

THINKING

- By age 1, has difficulty finding an object after seeing it hidden
- By age 2, does not point to body parts when asked such questions as "Where's your nose?"
- By age 3, does not play make-believe games
- By age 3, does not understand ideas such as "more," or "one"
- By age 4, does not answer simple questions, such as "What do you do when you are hungry?" or "What color is this?"
- By age 5, does not understand the meaning of today, yesterday, or tomorrow

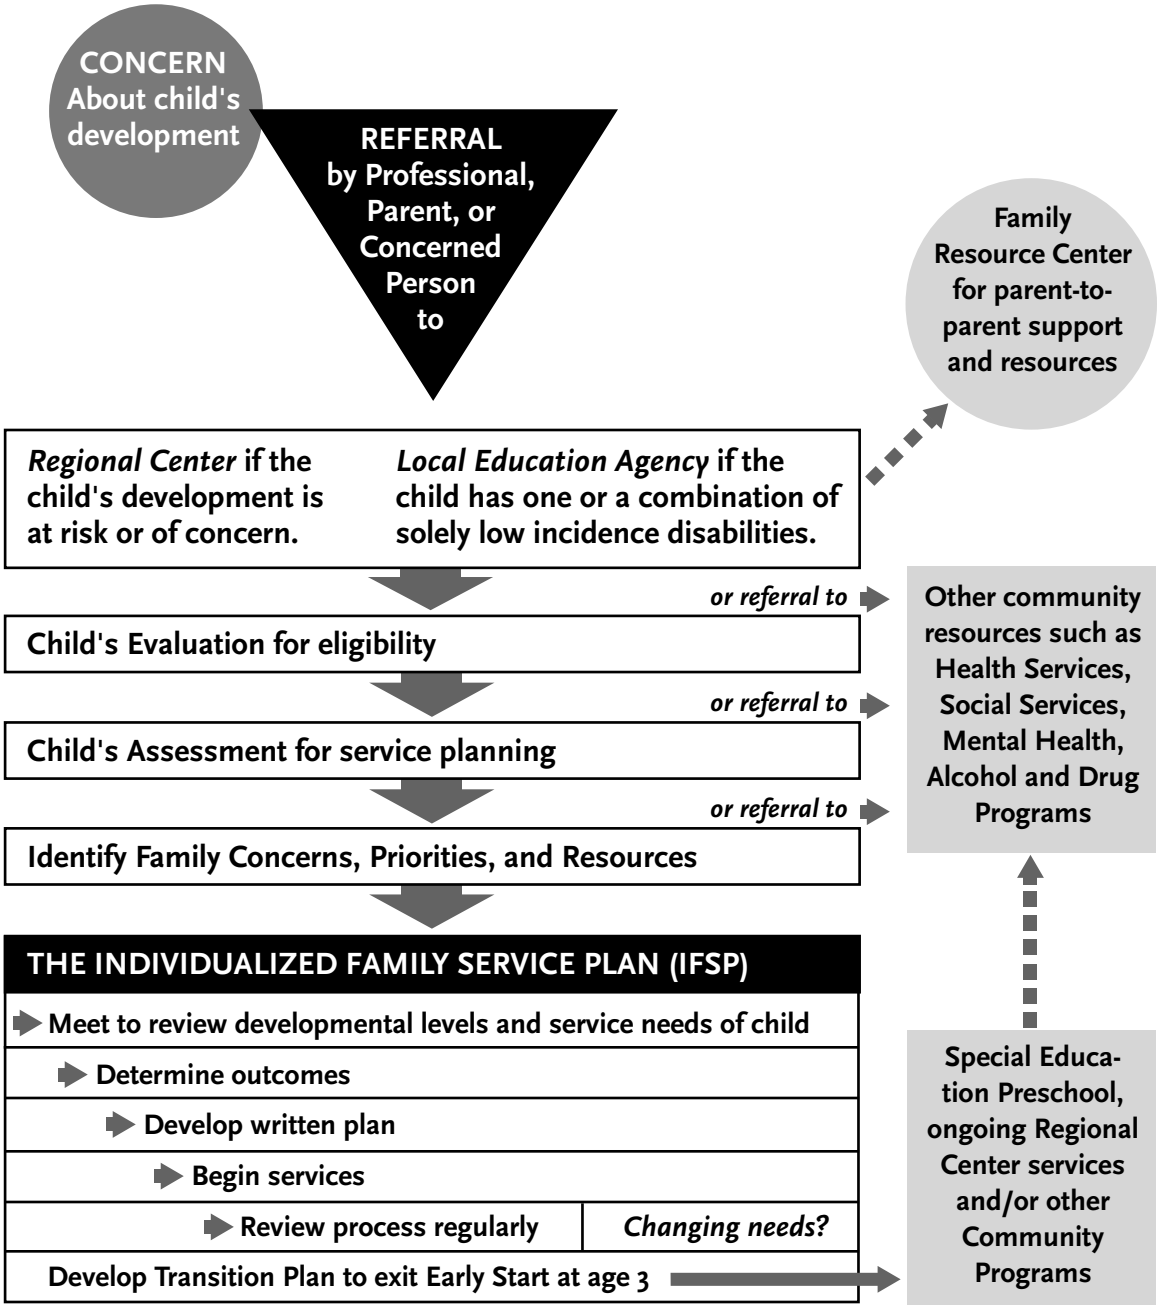
WHAT IS THE PROCESS FOR MAKING A REFERRAL?



California Department of Developmental Services

The Department of Developmental Services (DDS) provides leadership and direction to non-profit corporations to ensure that infants, toddlers, children, and adults with developmental disabilities receive the services and supports they need as envisioned by the California Early Intervention Services Act and the Lanterman Developmental Disabilities Services Act. The disabilities of the children and adults served include mental retardation, cerebral palsy, epilepsy, autism, and related conditions and, for infants and toddlers under age 3, this also includes being at risk for disabilities. DDS contracts with 21 regional centers that provide, arrange, or purchase services and supports at the local level.

CHILDREN AND FAMILY SERVICES BRANCH

DDS, as lead agency for Early Start, administers and coordinates a wide array of services for eligible infants and toddlers who have a developmental delay or disability or are at risk for a developmental disability and their families. The Children and Family Services Branch coordinates California's early intervention service system. Under Part C of the federal Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA), DDS is responsible for the planning, development, implementation, and monitoring of the statewide system of early intervention services in collaboration with the California Department of Education. DDS administers all mandatory and discretionary components required under IDEA including public awareness, personnel development, and interagency agreements with participating agencies and community-based organizations. DDS is also responsible for implementing procedural safeguards that protect the rights of children and families and for receiving and resolving complaints.

DDS maintains a toll-free BabyLine and web site that provides information on California's Early Start system of services, including resources and referral. DDS also contracts with local Early Start family resource centers across the state (see page 17).

REGIONAL CENTERS

Infants and toddlers, from birth up to 36 months, who have a developmental delay or disability or are at risk for a developmental disability may be eligible to receive services through California's 21 community-based regional centers. The Department of Developmental Services contracts with non-profit corporations that operate regional centers.

Regional centers are the single point of entry into the service system that serves people with developmental disabilities across all ages. Regional centers provide intake, evaluation, and assessment to determine eligibility and service needs. They also provide service coordination, advocacy, information, referral, and an array of other services to eligible infants and toddlers and their families.

Early intervention services are provided, purchased, or arranged by regional centers based on the unique needs of the child and family. Early intervention services that are not available through other publicly-funded agencies are generally purchased from community service providers who are "vendored" by the regional center. In some communities, regional centers contract with local education agencies (LEAs) to provide special instruction and other related early intervention services through their early childhood special education programs to children served by regional centers.

Regional centers coordinate with LEAs and other local agencies and organizations in evaluation, assessment, development of individualized family service plans, and service provision. For children who are dually served by a regional center and an LEA, basic special education and related services are usually provided by the LEA. Either LEAs or regional centers may be designated to provide service coordination. The regional center may also provide additional early intervention services or other available State services based on the needs of the child and family.

EARLY START FAMILY RESOURCE CENTERS

Families of infants and toddlers, from birth up to 36 months, who have a developmental delay or disability or are at risk for a developmental disability, can receive parent-to-parent support from family resource centers. Family resource centers receiving Early Start funding actively collaborate with local regional centers and educational agencies and help many parents, families, and children access early intervention services.

California's Early Start family resource centers (FRCs) are staffed by parents who have children with special needs and provide information and parent-to-parent support. Each FRC is unique, reflecting the needs of their community. They may operate as independent sites or be based in regional centers, local education agencies, public health facilities, hospitals, or homes. Services are available in many languages and are culturally responsive to the needs of the individual family.

Early Start family resource centers contracted by the California Department of Developmental Services may provide:

- parent-to-parent and family support
- peer counseling and home visits
- information and referral
- public awareness
- parent education
- support services in many languages
- transition assistance
- support services in urban and rural communities

Some FRCs have newsletters, resource libraries, and web sites, as well as parent and/or sibling support groups and telephone "warmlines" or "babylines."

In addition, the Family Resource Centers Network of California (FRCNCA) is a coalition of the State's FRCs. The mission of FRCNCA is to support children with special needs and those at risk, and their families by ensuring the continuance, expansion, promotion and quality of family-centered, parent directed family resource centers.

Visit the Family Resource Centers Network of California website at www.frcnca.org for more information.

SPECIAL EDUCATION DIVISION

The mission of the Special Education Division (SED) is to serve the unique needs of individuals with disabilities so that each person will meet or exceed high standards of achievement in academic and non-academic skills. This achievement will be represented by the ability of each person, in natural and formal settings, to demonstrate successful personal, vocational and social interaction including transition to the workplace and independent living.

Procedural Safeguards Referral Service Unit
800/926-0648

The Director's Office provides leadership and policy direction to assure that all individuals with disabilities receive a free and appropriate public education that allows them to achieve employment, effective citizenship, independent living, and the personal, academic, and social skills necessary for a quality of adult life.

The Administrative Services Unit provides leadership and oversight to support services for SED functions, including budget, contract, personnel, grants management, interagency cooperation, oversight of California special education due process and mediation system, special education public policy (legislation), administration of the non-public agency and school certification program, web site development, and personnel development via the Comprehensive System of Personnel Development and California Services for Technical Assistance and Training. In addition, staff provide lead oversight to administer state services in early intervention and special education to infants, toddlers, preschool children and their families. Within early intervention, the Division administers Early Start services for infants and toddlers with solely visual, hearing, and severe orthopedic impairments, or any combination thereof.

The Assessment, Evaluation and Support Unit provides leadership and support in the areas of assessment of students for special education eligibility, student performance, data collection management and dissemination, program evaluation, research and technical oversight to the SED.

The Procedural Safeguards Referral Service Unit provides information to parents and others on the rights and procedural safeguards under federal and state special education law and regulations for children over the age of 3. This information includes the three conflict resolution procedures: (1) mediation, (2) complaint investigation; and (3) due process.

The Complaints Management & Mediation Unit investigates and resolves complaints that are allegations of violations of state and federal law and that are initiated on behalf of students with suspected and identified disabilities.

The five Focused Monitoring & Technical Assistance Units conduct on-site reviews for selected local education agencies (LEAs) to ensure compliance with federal and state special education law, work with LEAs identified to be in non-compliance with federal or state special education law and provide technical assistance and leadership to (LEAs).

CHILD DEVELOPMENT DIVISION

The Child Development Division (CDD) provides subsidized services to eligible children and families throughout California. The primary purpose of child care and development programs administered by CDD is to provide comprehensive, coordinated, and affordable services for children from birth to 14 years of age in low-income families. These child development services (1) assist low-income parents (including CalWORKs recipients) to achieve economic self-sufficiency by enabling the parents to work or participate in job training; (2) safeguard children referred by child protective services agencies; and (3) enhance the physical, social, and emotional development of children.

STATE SPECIAL SCHOOLS AND SERVICES DIVISION

The State Special Schools and Services Division operates the California Schools for the Deaf in Fremont and Riverside, the California School for the Blind in Fremont, and the three State diagnostic centers located in Los Angeles, Fresno, and Fremont. This Division also includes the Deaf and Hard of Hearing Unit, which maintains a referral system for the California Newborn Hearing Screening Program.

SPECIAL EDUCATION LOCAL PLAN AREAS

Infants and toddlers who have vision, hearing, and severe orthopedic impairments (or a combination of these disabilities) receive individually designed early intervention services from local education agencies (LEAs) such as school districts and county offices of education. Across the state, special education local plan area (SELPA) administrators coordinate early childhood special education programs, which include early intervention services.

Since 1980, state law included a partial requirement for early education programs to serve the number of infants and toddlers with disabilities that they served in 1980-81. LEAs also provide services to a number of additional children in order to continue to qualify for their current level of state funding.

LEAs provide early intervention services in the home, community settings, and centers. These services include special instruction, service coordination, family support, and other early intervention services identified in the child's individualized family service plan (IFSP). LEAs also coordinate with regional centers and other local agencies and organizations in evaluation, assessment, and development of IFSPs.

For children who are dually served by a regional center and an LEA, basic special education and related services are usually provided by the LEA. Either LEAs or regional centers may be designated to provide service coordination. The regional center may also provide additional early intervention services or other available State services based on the needs of the child and family.

California Department of Health Services

The Department of Health Services (DHS), a collaborative Early Start partner, administers a range of programs that respond to the health and medical needs of children. The Children's Medical Services Branch (CMS) is a subdivision within DHS that oversees and supports programs that provide or fund preventive, diagnostic, and treatment services, including well-child assessments, immunizations, specialized health services, therapy, and rehabilitation services. CMS programs are designed to be responsive to children and families in greatest need, including infants and toddlers with disabilities and those at high risk for disabilities. Programs administered by CMS include:

- CALIFORNIA CHILDREN SERVICES (CCS)
  Provides diagnostic evaluations, treatment services, physical and occupational therapy, and medical case management for anyone who is under 21 years of age, is a California resident, has an eligible physically disabling medical condition, and whose family meets specific income eligibility requirements.
- CHILD HEALTH AND DISABILITY PREVENTION (CHDP)
  Provides comprehensive health assessments, including vision, hearing, immunizations, physical examinations, and dental, nutritional, and developmental assessments to children under 19 years of age whose families meet specific low-income criteria and to children under 21 years of age who are enrolled in Medi-Cal.
- CCS HIGH-RISK INFANT FOLLOW-UP PROGRAM
  Follows graduates of CCS-approved neonatal intensive care units (NICUs) until age 3 and provides comprehensive physical examinations, vision and hearing assessment, developmental and psychosocial assessments, and referrals.

- MEDICALLY VULNERABLE INFANT PROGRAM (MVIP)
  Provides home-based services to infants and their families following discharge from a CCS-approved NICU until the child reaches 3 years of age. Services include case management; referral; crisis intervention; advocacy; developmental assessment, monitoring, and intervention; parent counseling and education; and specialized therapeutic consultation and intervention.

- THE CALIFORNIA NEWBORN HEARING SCREENING PROGRAM
  Offers parents of infants born in CCS-approved hospitals the opportunity to have their child screened for hearing loss. Access to rescreening, diagnostic evaluation, and treatment also is available. Infants identified with a hearing loss are linked to early intervention services through an established Early Start referral system.

- HEALTH CARE PROGRAM FOR CHILDREN IN FOSTER CARE
  The Health Care Program for Children in Foster Care (HCPCFC) is a public health nursing program in child welfare services. Public Health Nurses (PHNs) funded by the program work as consultants to social workers, probation officers, and other members of the foster care team. The purpose of their consultation and care coordination is to enhance the physical, mental, dental, and developmental health and well-being of children and youth in the child welfare and probation systems. The PHNs collaborate on the health portion of the case plan, coordinate medical and other health services, and serve as liaison with health care providers and agencies. The PHNs assist the case worker and probation officer in the development and updating of the required Health and Education Passport. They provide training on child health for child welfare, probation, and juvenile court staff.

California Department of Social Services

The California Department of Social Services (CDSS) is an Early Start collaborative partner whose mission is to serve, aid, and protect needy and vulnerable children and adults in ways that strengthen and preserve families, encourage personal responsibility, and foster independence. CDSS strives to carry out its mission of providing aid, services, and protection to needy children and adults while strengthening and encouraging individual responsibility and independence for families. By managing and funding its programs, the objectives of the Department are carried out through 51 offices located throughout the State, the 58 county welfare department offices, and a host of community-based organizations. Local Social Services programs are administered by county and branch offices and provide local information on public and private social services available in each county.

In 2000 the California State Legislature passed Assembly Bill 1740, establishing the Child Welfare Services Stakeholders Group and charging it with reviewing existing Child Welfare Services (CWS) and making recommendations for their improvement. In response, the Governor asked the CDSS Director to appoint a group of key child welfare stakeholders to examine the current child welfare system and make recommendations on how to improve it.

During the first two years, the Stakeholders Group worked diligently, undertaking intensive research and consulting with lay and professional experts to explore the underlying assumptions of the current child welfare services system and establish a new set of principles as a foundation for the future of the program.

The Stakeholders Group is in the final stages of this three-year assignment and is developing a comprehensive, integrated implementation plan to move the redesign of child welfare services from the conceptual to the actual.

California Department of Alcohol and Drug Programs

The Department of Alcohol and Drug Programs (ADP), an Early Start collaborative partner, directs and coordinates the statewide effort to prevent and reduce alcohol and drug abuse and their effects. The Department provides funding for county-administered and other alcohol and drug prevention and treatment services for persons who have, or are at risk of having, drug and alcohol problems. Intake and assessment for services vary at the local level and may be based on self-report, court order, or past history of substance abuse.

Generally, ADP treatment programs focus on adults, however, some local programs may offer services for younger children as part of other treatment programs for women and families. Counties place a particular emphasis on prevention and treatment programs for pregnant women through the ADP Perinatal Services Network (PSN). The provision of PSN services has increased awareness of and involvement in the early intervention service delivery system.

Each county drug or alcohol program can provide information on services available within each county.

California Department of Mental Health

The Department of Mental Health (DMH), also an Early Start collaborative partner, directs and coordinates the statewide delivery of publicly-funded mental health services. Services are provided at the county level and attempt to reflect the needs of each community. Services for children and youth typically include intake referral, mental health evaluation and assessment, outpatient treatment, day treatment, residential placement, and case management services provided by a wide range of mental health professionals and paraprofessionals.

Assessments are conducted to determine the need for mental health services and to determine whether services from the county mental health departments or other community agencies are most appropriate. Programs provided by county mental health departments have typically focused on services for school-age children, adolescents, and adults with eligible conditions. However, services for families and infants and toddlers with disabilities, or at risk of a disability, may be provided in conjunction with other agencies and local early intervention services.

Each county mental health department can provide local program information on public and private mental health services available in each county.

State Interagency Coordinating Council on Early Intervention

The State Interagency Coordinating Council (ICC) on Early Intervention assists and advises the Department of Developmental Services (DDS) concerning the statewide system of early intervention services. The ICC also assists DDS in achieving the full participation, cooperation, and coordination of appropriate public agencies that serve young children and their families. The ICC serves as a forum for public input from parents, service providers, service coordinators, and others about federal, State, or local policies that support the timely delivery of appropriate early intervention services.

Members of the ICC are appointed by the Governor. The council is comprised of parents of children with disabilities, early intervention service providers, health care professionals, state agency representatives, and others interested in early intervention. Meetings are held four times each year.

Training, Technical Assistance, and Resources

The following statewide resource projects provide training, technical assistance, program and staff development resources, family education resources, and support for various aspects of California Early Start.

California Early Intervention Technical Assistance Network

WESTED CENTER FOR PREVENTION & EARLY INTERVENTION
1107 9th Street, 4th Floor

Under the direction of the Department of Developmental Services (DDS), the California Early Intervention Technical Assistance Network (CEITAN) provides training, technical assistance, and support to agencies and programs regarding the Early Start system for infants and toddlers with disabilities and their families.

CEITAN facilitates the implementation of a statewide comprehensive system of personnel development (CSPD) for Early Start. CEITAN coordinates with colleges, universities, professional organizations, Part B CSPD activities, and other personnel development providers to enhance training opportunities in the field of early intervention.

Early Start Statewide Institutes and Special Topic Trainings

- address early intervention competencies for professionals in three core content areas
- service coordination trainings: foundation and advanced
- annual Family Resource Centers and Networks Conference

California Early Start Personnel Development Scholarship Fund

- supports professional development for personnel who provide early intervention services

Community College Personnel Preparation Project

- developing a comprehensive curriculum for persons interested in working with infants, toddlers, and young children with disabilities through a network of community college child development programs (see listing on page 125)

Early Start Consultant Network

- provides technical assistance in CSPD product development, the monitoring process, and on other State priority projects

Early Start Resources (ESR), a special project of DDS, facilitates implementation of Early Start statewide public awareness activities including targeted outreach to specific populations. Under the direction of DDS, ESR produces and disseminates a variety of public awareness and outreach materials and products that promote Early Start. Multilingual materials are available for parents, healthcare providers, and early intervention professionals.

ESR also offers statewide access to the Early Start Library, which houses more than 4,000 early intervention resources including books, research reports, training videos, and support materials.

Resource assistance, including linkage and referral, is also provided.

First 5 California Children and Families Commission

First 5 California's School Readiness (SR) Initiative is being accomplished through the joint efforts of the First 5 California Children and Families Commission (CCFC) and all 58 counties. The School Readiness Initiative engages families, community members, and educators in the important work of preparing children, birth to age 5, for elementary school. This Initiative adopted the definition of school readiness developed by the National Education Goals Panel (NEGP) which covers three aspects of a child's life: children's readiness for school, schools' readiness for children, family and community supports, and services that contribute to children's readiness for school success.

Early Head Start Programs

Early Head Start (EHS) is a federally-funded community-based program for low-income families with infants and toddlers and pregnant women. Its mission is to promote healthy prenatal outcomes for pregnant women, enhance the development of very young children, and promote healthy family functioning.

EHS programs have the responsibility to coordinate with programs providing services in accordance with Part C of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act. Children with disabilities are fully included in program activities.
