OFFICE OF THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Holiday Craft Fair at Sonoma Developmental Center

Eldridge, California - Sonoma Developmental Center will hold its annual Holiday Craft Fair on December 5 and 6, 2012 at the facility's gymnasium.

The Annual Holiday Craft Fair will occur between the hours of 10 am and 4 pm. The Center has held a Craft Fair for over 20 years, to raise funds for client activities that are not funded by the state. Sonoma Developmental Center will continue the tradition with a two-day sale at the facility's gymnasium.

Items available for purchase will include knitted hats; pottery; bags with your name embroidered on them; hand made dog bowls; beauty products; ornaments; holiday baskets; hand made jewelry; baked goods; handmade toys; potholders; body lotions; candles; ceramics; one of a kind gifts; and much, much more.

There are sure to be a lot of great holiday gifts and decorations and with 30 vendors from Sonoma County each day, you are sure to find that perfect item! So be sure to come by and support your local vendors.

Entrance to the Craft Fair is free and the event is open to the public. For directions to the gymnasium, located on the corner of Wilson road and Sonoma road, go to <http://www.dds.ca.gov/Sonoma/Directions.cfm>.

For more information about the Holiday Craft Fair, contact Becky Zyskowski, Coordinator of Volunteer Services at (707) 938-6713.

Sonoma Developmental Center, located in the heart of the wine country, is one of four developmental centers operated by the Department of Developmental Services (DDS). It is the largest developmental center in California serving the needs of individuals with developmental disabilities. The DDS is also operates a small community facility in Cathedral City, CA.
