	family home or move into more natural living environments.
9. Decrease number and percent of adults living in facilities serving > 6	 Early identification and assessment of needs of consumers at risk of moving into more restrictive settings such as an SDC. Through new vendor training emphasize the need for homes that provide services to fewer than six residents. Continue to work with the one remaining larger home in RCEB area to downsize.

Local Public Policy Outcomes (optional)

	Outcome	Baseline (or how Baseline will be obtained)	Plan for Measuring Progress in Achieving Outcome
1.	Support multi-cultural family conferences that address the needs of our culturally diverse East Bay Community.	RCEB co-sponsored 3 events this past year.	 RCEB will co-sponsor at least two events Staff will participate in the planning of these events RCEB will actively participate in all events and conduct workshops.
2.	Families and consumers will be assisted in preparing for transition from school to day/work services.	Two transition fairs (1 in Contra Costa County and 1 in Alameda County) and one transition conference were held this year.	 RCEB will partner with Education and the Developmental Disabilities Councils in each county to provide two Transition Fairs annually. RCEB will continue to provide major support/staff time to put on one transition conference in Contra Costa County.
3.	Given the rise in consumers diagnosed with autism, families have increased needs for training and support. RCEB will increase the number of educational programs and training supports available for families.	RCEB has an Autism Clinical Team which continues to meet regularly and is available to case management and families for consultation. The Autism Resource Team which meets monthly focuses on the development of programs and services and conducts community outreach. Both the RCEB Autism Spectrum Disorder Specialist and the Autistic Disorder Coordinator continue to conduct community outreach activities and staff training.	 RCEB will continue to develop education and training opportunities for families of children with autism. RCEB will continue to utilize the Autism Clinical Team for support to families and children. The RCEB Autism Resource Team, which includes Community Services staff, will continue to actively develop new resources and services in areas including family support, residential options and program opportunities for adults.
