Important notice from the Department of Developmental Services about

Regional Center Messaging to Local Communities During COVID-19 Outbreak

What to know

Your Regional Center is available. Their contact numbers are on their website.

What's changing

Your Regional Center will let you know how to call them and will have this information on their website.

If you call your Regional Center, you will be able to:

- Talk to someone
- Request to speak with a specific person
- Find out when someone will call you back

The Department expects that your Regional Center will make sure your service coordinator contacts you.

Questions?

Please contact your local regional center. If they cannot help you, please email DDSC19@dds.ca.gov
