

- Speaker 1: We went to a dance recently to talk about friendships. Here's what we learned. Why is it good to have friends?
- Speaker 2: Well, I think it's important to have friends because without friends, you don't have anybody to talk to, anybody to do things with.
- Speaker 3: To me, friendship's important because you know that there'll be someone there to get your back if you're in trouble.
- Speaker 4: They're powerful, and good thoughts, and your dreams.
- Speaker 1: What would it feel like if you did not have friends?
- Speaker 5: I'd be sad.
- Speaker 3: I would feel empty inside, like an outcast, like no one wants to be my friend because they think I'm weird.
- Speaker 2: Life just seems kind of dreary without having friends.
- Speaker 1: What do you do with your friends?
- Speaker 4: Hang out and think about boys.
- Speaker 6: Bowling, dances. [crosstalk 00:00:01:43].
- Speaker 7: Sometimes, [inaudible] like we go on a trip. [crosstalk 00:01:47].
- Speaker 6: Field trip.
- Speaker 7: I would go to the mall with them.
- Speaker 8: Yeah, mall.
- Speaker 6: IKEA.
- Speaker 4: Going out shopping and maybe ice skating.
- Speaker 1: How do friends make you feel?
- Speaker 4: I feel good and inspired with them.
- Speaker 9: Happy.
- Speaker 3: They make me feel happy when I'm around my friends when we're around each other hanging out.

This transcript was exported on Oct 13, 2020 - view latest version here.

Speaker 10: It feels much better to have a friendship.

Speaker 5: Make me laugh and not make me cry, either.

Speaker 6: Friends is [inaudible] fun with.

Speaker 7: [inaudible] fun with.

Speaker 1: Friends are great. Have fun with your friends.