Lanterman Act Eligibility Criteria

Lanterman Act Eligibility	Lanterman Act Provisional Eligibility
 All of the following must be met: Diagnosed with an intellectual disability, autism, epilepsy, cerebral palsy, and/or other disability that closely resembles an intellectual disability and/or results in the individual requiring similar services to an individual with intellectual disabilities The disability originates prior to age 18, is expected to be lifelong and constitutes a substantial disability for the individual "Substantial disability" means significant functional limitations in three or more of the following areas: Self-care Receptive and expressive language Learning Mobility Self-direction Capacity for independent living Economic self-sufficiency 	All of the following must be met: Child is three or four years of age The disability is not solely physical in nature and the child has significant functional limitations in at least two of the following areas of major life activity: Self-care Receptive and expressive language Learning Mobility Self-direction