

YOUR APPEAL RIGHTS

In the Lanterman Act

Notice of Action (NOA)

The regional center must send you a NOA when the regional center makes a decision without your written agreement.

The NOA Must Tell You

The regional center's decision.
The date the decision will happen.
The reason for the decision.
The facts and law that support the decision.

The NOA must be in plain language and in your preferred language.

When You Will Get A NOA

30
Days

Before the Regional Center
Stops or changes your IPP services or ends your eligibility for regional center services.

5
Days

After the Regional Center
Denies an IPP services you want or decides you are not eligible to become a regional center consumer.

You Can Appeal

If you and the regional center don't agree you can appeal the decision.

There are three parts to the appeal process.

1. Informal Meeting
2. Mediation
3. Hearing

You choose the parts of the appeal process you want to use.

How To Appeal

Send your appeal to the Department of Developmental Services.

When To Appeal

Your appeal must be filed by the deadlines.

To Keep Current Services

File 30 days after you got a Notice of Action and before the date it says services end.

All Other Appeals

File within 60 days of getting a Notice of Action.

You Have Rights During An Appeal

To be provided with an interpreter

To access your regional center records

To have help during an appeal

To request a different mediator or hearing officer

The regional center can't use an attorney unless you do

Your Rights at the Hearing

To provide written documents as evidence

To have witnesses testify

To ask the regional center's witnesses questions
